

ESLE is a non-profit organisation whose prime concerns are to advocate on behalf of ESL educators and learners and to foster professional development in ESL teaching. Teachers, Bilingual School Services Officers, students of TESOL and other interested persons from school, adult, tertiary and community sectors are invited to join ESLE.

Membership of ESLE brings you

- relevant information from local, national and international sources
- two issues of ESL Educators Journal
- membership of ACTA (Australian Council of TESOL Associations) with representation at the national level
- two issues of the national publication TESOL in Context
- concessions to ESLE Professional Development activities
- the opportunity for social contact and professional discussion with colleagues
